Clinton County, IA: Clinton County Justice Coordinating Commission (CCJCC) and Clinton County Building Maintenance Office announce preparations for the new maintenance building on the southwest corner of the Clinton County Courthouse.

A new building will house temporary heating and cooling of the Courthouse, as preparations are underway for the new Law Center. Clinton County Maintenance Director Corey Johnson stated, "This building will provide heating and cooling to the Courthouse during construction time. After construction is completed, this structure will become the permanent Maintenance workshop/garage area, which is replacing the boiler house." Johnson also said, "We expect digging and cement work to begin on September 20th." "We are anticipating boiler house demolition in October or early November when ground work starts."

CCJCC Coordinator Margaret Kuhl noted "The official groundbreaking for the new Law Center, which will house the Clinton County Jail/Sheriff's Office/911 Emergency Communications Center & Emergency Management Agency and the Emergency Operations Center, will be announced very soon." Kuhl further states, "We will welcome and encourage community participation in the groundbreaking, as we embark on the next phase in the development of this new building, which will serve Clinton County citizens."

The referendum was approved by 73.9% on May 3, 2016. ShiveHattery is providing the Architectural services for the project and the Samuels Group is the Construction Manager.
