Clinton County, IA: Clinton County Justice Coordinating Commission (CCJCC) announces the Groundbreaking Ceremony for new Jail/Sheriff's Offices/911 Communications Center/Emergency Management Agency/Emergency Operations Center. The Groundbreaking ceremony will take place Monday, October 3, 2016 at 11:30 A.M. on site of the existing Law Center, located at 241 7th Avenue North in Clinton, Iowa.

CCJCC Coordinator Margaret Kuhl noted "The groundbreaking for the new Law Center will officially kick off the preparation of the site, ground work and future construction." Kuhl further states, "We welcome and encourage community participation in the groundbreaking, as we embark on the next phase in the development of this new building, which will serve Clinton County citizens for decades in the future." County Officials, Project Team members, Michael Lewis - ShiveHattery Architect, Sid Samuels - Construction Manager and community leaders will participate in the groundbreaking.

The referendum was approved by 73.9% on May 3, 2016. ShiveHattery is providing the Architectural services for the project and the Samuels Group is the Construction Manager.
