Clinton County Supervisor Meetings to Return to Mondays

CLINTON – The Clinton County Board of Supervisors will begin meeting on its typical Monday schedule starting June 1, 2015.

The meetings were temporarily shifted to Tuesday's at the start of this year to accommodate Supervisors' schedules. The Board of Supervisors' meetings in Clinton County are traditionally conducted on Mondays.

Clinton County Board Chairman John Staszewski, however, reminded the public to continually check the Clinton County Web site for the Board's agenda for time and location of the meetings. He said while the traditional meeting time is 9 a.m. on Monday in the Board Room of the Clinton County Administration Building, 1900 N. 3rd St., Clinton, IA, the Board may still move meeting times and locations at the Board's discretion.

“From time to time, we like to move our meeting out of Clinton in the hopes of County residents having a better chance to attend one of our meetings,” Staszewski said. “We have also been known to move our meetings due to local issues that may arise. In those cases, we'll have our meeting close to the neighbors affected by a certain issue to encourage more participation.”

Clinton County Board of Supervisor meeting agendas and minutes can be found at www.clintoncounty-ia.gov.
