Absentee Voting Available for School District Special Elections

CLINTON – Clinton County Auditor Eric Van Lancker has announced that absentee ballots for the April 2, 2013, Central Clinton Community and Northeast Community School District Special Elections are available in the Clinton County Auditor's Office starting March 18, 2013.

Absentee ballots may be cast in the Clinton County Auditor's Office at the Clinton County Administration Building, 1900 N. 3rd St., Clinton, IA, during regular office hours from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday through April 1. However, the office will be closed for the holiday on March 29, 2013.

The Central Clinton Community School District Special Election features one public measure. Proposition A asks voters for approval of a physical plant and equipment levy at a rate of 67-cents per one thousand dollars of assessed value for ten years.

The Northeast School District Special Election will include two public measures. Proposition B asks voters to approve a physical plant and equipment levy at a rate of 67-cents per one thousand dollars of assessed value for ten years. Proposition C seeks approval of a $7.5 million bond issue.

Absentee ballots must be requested in writing. Request forms are available at the Auditor's Office, on the Clinton County Web site at www.clintoncounty-ia.gov and at the Iowa Secretary of State's Web site at www.sos.state.ia.us. Requests for ballots to be mailed to a voter's home must be received in the Auditor's Office before 5 p.m. March 28.

Voted ballots that are mailed back to the Auditor's Office must be postmarked before midnight April 1 to be counted. An absentee ballot may also be returned in person to the Auditor's Office before polls close at 8 p.m. on April 2.
