Clinton County to Close Administration Building for Training Feb. 19

CLINTON – The Clinton County Board of Supervisors has ordered the Clinton County Administration Building, 1900 N. 3rd St., Clinton, IA, be closed the afternoon of Monday, February 19, 2018, from noon to 4:30 p.m. for employee training.

County employees will be training on its Run, Hide, Fight active shooter policy. The training will include live-action scenarios that will require the Clinton County Administration Building to be closed.

During the closure, no one except those employees being trained will be allowed on the property.

Offices that will be affected by the closure include: the Board of Supervisors, County Auditor, County Engineer, County Assessor, City of Clinton Assessor, County Recorder, County Treasurer, County IT, County Maintenance, Veteran's Affairs, Human Resources, Community Assistance and County Mental Health.
