RESOLUTION 2022-
RESOLUTION TO EXPRESS CLINTON COUNTY SUPPORT FOR 7TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT HIGH RISK UNIT FUNDING

WHEREAS, Clinton County is committed to collaborating with local law enforcement and public safety partners to ensure our community is a safe place for all residents to reside. One such partner is the Department of Correctional Services 7th Judicial District of Iowa. They are charged with overseeing offenders who are currently on court ordered supervised release to ensure they are complying with the terms and conditions of their probation as to not reoffend in the community; and

WHEREAS, currently, half of Iowa Department of Correctional service’s eight districts have deployed High Risk United in their jurisdictions, while the 7th Judicial District has not. High Risk Units are parole or probation officers that are sworn law enforcement officers. High Risk Units are responsible for the supervision and monitoring of high risk, violent offenders, those at most risk of reoffending in our county. Although the number of offenders in this category is relatively small, they are responsible for the majority of violent crimes in our county and recidivate at rates exceeding 80%; and

WHEREAS, High Risk Units are responsible for conducting residential check-ins throughout the district and ensuring parolees are complying with the conditions of supervision, including electronic monitoring of parolees. They also execute warrants and apprehend absconders throughout the community before they are able to reoffend. As sworn law enforcement officers, the High Risk Unit assists local law enforcement agencies with fugitive captures, special enforcement projects, task force operations and seizures of firearms and narcotics; and

WHEREAS, Clinton County is located within the Correctional Services 7th Judicial District. The Board of Directors has previously identified the need for a High Risk Unit within the 7th Judicial District, which it currently does not have. The 7th Judicial District would like to enhance their oversight of parolees in our county with the creation of the High Risk Unit within their district, but needs State funding in order to do so; and

WHEREAS, the creation of a High Risk Unit in the Department of Corrections 7th Judicial District will directly contribute to the safety of our county by providing a more intense oversight of those violent offenders at highest risk of reoffending in our communities; now

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, Clinton County supports funding through the Department of Corrections for a High Risk Unit in the Department of Correctional Services 7th Judicial District.
