DISCUSSION WITH POSSIBLE ACTION

The Clinton County Board of Supervisors met for a work session regarding wind turbine regulations. The meeting covered various aspects of wind energy development, including property value guarantees, decommissioning plans, insurance requirements, safety concerns, and potential legal challenges. The supervisors discussed potential revisions to the existing ordinance, aiming to balance community interests, developer requirements, and legal defensibility, with a commitment to further evaluate these areas. The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, October 30th, 2025, at 1:30 PM to finalize the draft, and send it off to planning and zoning.

The Board of Supervisors adjourned to meet at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 30, 2025.
