DISCUSSION WITH POSSIBLE ACTION

The Board of Supervisors for Clinton County met on October 30, 2025. The main topic of discussion is a proposed ordinance related to wind turbines, particularly concerning shadow flicker, decommissioning procedures, and setback requirements. The debate and discussion focused on the specifics of these regulations. The board continued to work on the ordinance with the practical implications for landowners, developers, and the county's interests, exploring compromise positions and seeking legal clarification on several points.

The Board of Supervisors adjourned to meet at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, November 3, 2025.
