Suicide Awareness & Prevention Roundtable

A Suicide Awareness & Prevention roundtable discussion was held with members of the public, local organizations and law enforcement agencies as well as with elected officials from city, county and the state level at the Clinton County Law Center on Wednesday, September 7, 2022.

Roundtable representatives included US Congresswoman Miller-Meeks, Senator Chris Cournoyer, Iowa Representative Norlin Mommsen, Chief Executive Officer with Foundation 2 Crisis Services Emily Blomme, Outreach Coordinator/Educator with Speak Out Against Suicide Shawn Felts, Suicide Prevention Director with Iowa Department of Public Health and Human Services Keri Neblett, Program Planner 3 with Iowa Department of Public Health and Human Services Julie Maas, City of Camanche Superintendent Tom Parker and Clinton County Sheriff Bill Greenwalt.

We appreciate all who attended the roundtable and provided feedback as well as a special thank you to US Congresswoman Miller-Meeks for supporting suicide awareness and prevention by meeting with over 100 members of our community!
